

Please review the Interview Outline Below

Coach Unplugged interviews coaches from the past, present, and future allowing them to share their coaching failures and successes, tips, drills, and skills, along with practice do and don't to help coaches everywhere.

Check out the show: iTunes Link

<https://podcasts.apple.com/us/podcast/basketball-coach-unplugged-a-basketball-coaching-podcast/id1044115915>

(outline for the interview)---It tends to be conversational

1.Intro coach/ guest

a. Please provide me with a short bio (Homework for you)

2.Self-introduction: I will have you introduce yourself

a.Family,Community/School

b. Your coaching history/ what coaches had the biggest influence on your style

3.Coaching Questions

(X and O...Philosophy, etc...I find it to not send them all...I can send a sample if you wish)

4.Favorite quote/ thought for the day (Homework for you)

a. This can be sports related or life related, your favorite quote or the one that means the most to you today

5.Drills/practice plan for improvement. (do you have any pdf, etc you would like to share as we can put in show-notes (Homework for you)

Favorite Drill: Will ask about this and if you have a handout we can share

6.Coaching Technique

Is there one coaching technique that you have found epically helpful that we should add to our toolbox

7. Is there a book or piece of literature you would recommend we read to help us be better coaches (Homework for you)

8. Do you have a Camp, Coaches clinic, blog, website, podcast etc where we can find you, or a book you have written and where to find it any promotion you have to share

9. Your contact info (Homework for you Please send). Will put in show notes

My Contact info Steve Collins

steve@teachhoops.com